

Prof. Tadeusz Jankowski

8 April 1940 – 6 November 2015

Prof. Tadeusz Jankowski, PhD, Professor Emeritus of the Gdańsk University of Technology, a specialist in the field of differential and functional equations, passed away at the age of 75 years old in Gdańsk on 6 November 2015.

Professor Tadeusz Jankowski was born on 8 April 1940 in Koło. He studied mathematics at the Adam Mickiewicz University in Poznań receiving his MSc degree in Mathematics in 1963. His whole professional life was linked with the Gdańsk University of Technology where he would work from 1963 until retirement in 2010. He defended his PhD dissertation entitled Convergence of Approximate Iterations for Certain Types of Functional Equations at the Faculty of Mathematics Physics and Chemistry at the University of Gdańsk in 1971. He was awarded his DSc degree on the basis of his dissertation entitled Existence, Uniqueness and Approximate Solutions of Problems with a Parameter. He was awarded the title of Professor in Mathematical Sciences in 2008.

Tadeusz Jankowski was a distinguished professor of the Gdańsk University of Technology, he held numerous positions at the University. He was the Deputy Dean for Education at the Faculty of Technical Physics and Applied Mathematics. He held the position of the Head of the Chair of Differential Equations and Applications of Mathematics. He was also a member of the Senate of the Gdańsk University of Technology and a member of Senate Committees. He was Vice-Chairman of the Gdańsk Branch of the Polish Mathematical Society. He was the author of more than 150 scientific articles published in reputable international journals. His output includes many results most often related to approximate solutions of differential equations of various types as well as numerical methods. He was the teacher and educator of students of many academic years. He was the author of three textbooks for teaching higher mathematics and a member of numerous Polish and international scientific organizations.

Professor Tadeusz Jankowski was awarded many times for his scientific and teaching achievements. He received more than a dozen awards of the Rector of the Technical University of Gdansk, the Gold Cross of Merit, a Medal of the Commission of National Education.
